If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its poculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

STATE LABOR COMMISSIONER

Strike Settled-William Martin for National Labor Commismissioner-W. & H. R. R.

The regular meeting yesterday after noon of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, was one of the most in-teresting, as well as the most protracted, held for many months. The principal matter of interest passed upon was the naming of a candidate for the newly created office of State Commissioner of Labor Statistics. In accordance with the final recommendation of the Assembly's Legislative Committee, it was decided and Officer Bell served it. Col. Arnett that the Assembly should name one candidate for the position, without respectively. held for many months. The principal candidate for the position, without regard to politics, and urge upon whoever may finally become Governor de facio his appointment.

There was a good deal of discussion. Among the candidates had been M. A. Dhew, Conrad Wassemann and John Dorcoran, but these all withdrew in fa-yor of Mr. Richard Robertson, of the vor of Mr. Richard Robertson, of the News Letter, who was thereupon unanimously nominated for the position.

Mr. J. H. Burtt, so long and prominently identified with this Assembly, having withdrawn from his candidacy for National Labor Commissioner, a motion was made and prevailed unanimously, that the assembly endorse William Martin, Secretary of the Amalgamated Association, for this position.

A BOYCOTT LIFTED.

A BOYCOTT LIPTED.

The delegates from the Martin's Ferry The delegates from the Martin's Ferry Carpenters' Assembly reported that J. Kerr & Son, the contractors there, had conceded the point for which the men struck last July, agreeing to employ only union workmen, to work on union hours and to pay union wages. The strike had therefore been declared off, and the Assembly was asked to lift the boycott. This was done.

The Cigar Makers' Assembly, K. of L., reported that a bogus label in close imitation of their copyrighted label, had been gotten up and was used on cigars made elsewhere and brought here to self. The matter was left for their own assembly to take the proper action.

THE W. & H. R. H. MATTER.

THE W. & H. R. R. MATTER Attention was called to a publication in yesterday's News-Letter charging that Palge, Carey & Co., the contractors who are doing the bridge and tunnel work for the W. & H. Railroad Company, had written to all the bosses in their employ a letter, all substantially alike, and one of them reading as follows:

Finally the employers signified their willingness to hold a conference this evening, but the workmen's committee was not in a position to accept this invitation, as the National Union meets at Columbus to-morrow, and the jacmbers Columbus to morrow, and the members of the committee leave for there this evening to attend the session,

The Steel Plant Strike.

There was a long and interesting meeting Saturday evening at Benwood of the employes of the Wheeling Steel plant who belong to the Amalgamanted Associaciation, and it was depicted to continue the strike. Saturday all the salaried men about the establishment were paid off and notified that their services would be no longer required. The only men who are now under employment at the plant are two or three watchmen.

As before stated, Brooks has referred under the leadership of Direc-command of a good flow of language, for Spell, and with an enlarged number shows considerable cleverness and has shows considerable cleverness and has quick perceptive power. All this forms a combination sufficient to enable him or any other smart man in the same business to pick out people in his audience and in a general way tell about their lives and circumstances as any fortune teller would do—by simply doing some clever guessing. This can be done so that there will be some points of resemblance to the truth,

Last night's meeting opened with the singing of that good old tune, "America"—"My country, 'tis of thee," etc., and the way in which it was murdered in the singing was horrible enough to raise Brooks then addressed an invocation to a something he was pleased to term ("Qur Father and Mother God," and to which he petitioned for "an unfoldment of spiritualistic faculties," and that the Light and Truth might be sought after. He did not at this period make any reference to his rooms at No. 74 Fourteenth street, where the payment of $1 was productive of satisfactory quantities of "Light and Truth."

Then he had one of the subjects that had been written by a "believer," alias a rank crank, and read something like this: "What is the religion in the Christian idea of Spiritualism?" Even Brooks was paralyzed by this, but taking the two topies "Christianity" and "Spiritualism," he started in and talked and generalized, and waved his arms and bent his body, and shouted in a strained tone of voice, and kept this up for half an hour, leav, but he was a to the subject of the guest of her aunts.

He said that Christianity was a belief and Spiritualism a fact. At times, as he lauded Buddha, Mohammed and Conficius, he talked like an out-and-out. Theosoph. Then he would vary his remarks by deriding Christianity and all that it implies. Spiritualism, he said knew but little of God. would eventually get there. No one doubted this after looking at the subject, though just where she was going to get to was left a little vague.

He felt of a man's hand and then rambled on about a great change that was to come over him. No luck in some things in the past, dectera ad nauxem.

There are plenty of people who for the fun of the thing will give up one hundred cents of the coin of the Nation to hear Brooks tell their fortune, which is what he does under the is what he does under the head of psychometric reading, and his visit to Wheeling will probably be a successful one financially. That is one fault Wheeling people have—they will usually blow money in on anything that
